why would someone write a book on mind control because as much as we try to elevate ourselves above being human animals we are in fact animals we are subject to the wants and desires of any being with a genome and vertebrae to rise above that is an admirable and a task we should take on as a worthy spiritual endeavor but to deny that we are truly animals is to lie to ourselves we must deal with people who may not be so enlightened advanced as we are they may desire what we have and be secretly filled with envy and contempt the worst event is to have these suspicions fulfilled and then be pulled down into the politics of man do we deny that it s happening and hope others will be touched by our honesty and good will enough to change or do we drop our highest spiritual ideals and play their game i would like to suggest a radically different strategy take the game of manipulation and mind control and make it a part of your spirituality people who have survived ritual abuse or mind control experiments have often been silenced accused of lying mocked and disbelieved clinicians working with survivors often find themselves isolated facing the same levels of disbelief and denial from other professionals within the mental health field this report based on proceedings from a conference on the subject presents knowledge and experience from both clinicians and survivors to promote understanding and recovery from organized and ritual abuse mind control and programming the book combines clinical presentations survivors voices and research material to help address the ways in which we can work clinically with mind control and cult programming from the perspective of relational psychotherapy
